

CONSUMER FRAUD PREVENTION FAIR

HOSTED BY THE OFFICE OF NEVADA CONSUMER AFFAIRS

- ♦ How can you prevent becoming a victim of fraud?
- ♦ Where do you turn if you have already been scammed?
- ♦ What are your rights as a consumer in Nevada?

Your first line of defense against fraud is education! Join us for this one-day informational event to learn about steps you can take to avoid becoming a victim or speak with organizations that can help you if you have already been victimized.

WHAT

9 am – 4 pm: Resource Fair

10 am: Scam Alert! Presented by Nevada AG's Office

2 pm: Fraud Prevention Panel Discussion

WHEN

Wednesday, March 9, 2016

WHERE

Grant Sawyer Building, 1st Floor - 555 E. Washington Avenue, Las Vegas

Questions? Call (702) 486-2750

DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY
business.nv.gov

FREE & OPEN TO THE PUBLIC

Resource Fair Participants:

- Nevada Consumer Affairs
- Ombudsman of Consumer Affairs for Minorities
- Nevada Attorney General
- Nevada Contractors Board
- So. Nevada Senior Law Program
- Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada
- Nevada Division of Insurance
- Nevada Real Estate Division
- Nevada Workers' Compensation Section
- Nevada Manufactured Housing Division
- Nevada Mortgage Lending Division
- BBB Serving So. Nevada
- Nevada Labor Commission
- NV Senior Medicare Patrol
- Home Again
- Public Utilities Commission
- Office for Consumer Health Assistance
- Clark County Recorder's Office

Panelists:

Cris Carmona, Chief Investigator
Nevada Consumer Affairs

Wes Duncan, 1st Assistant AG
Office of the Attorney General

Michelle Johnson, CEO
Financial Guidance Center

Lauren Davis, Esq., Attorney
So. Nevada Senior Law Program